

PRESS RELEASE

Armed Forces Foundation Announces Election of New Board Members

Four New Members Added to National Nonprofit's Board of Directors

WASHINGTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--The Armed Forces Foundation (AFF) is proud to announce the election of four new members to the AFF's Board of Directors. The new board members' backgrounds in government, communications, and medicine will provide the AFF with greater means to better serve members of the Armed Forces community. The four board members will begin assisting the organization effective immediately and include: The Honorable Mark White, James Mitchell, Dr. Marc Koch and Taryn Duffy.

Governor Mark White served as the Governor of Texas from 1983-1987 and currently serves as the Chairman at Geovox Security, Inc. James Mitchell is a retired Navy Captain currently serving as the Director of Communications at the US Office of Special Counsel.

Dr. Marc Koch is the President and CEO of Somnia, Inc., a national provider of anesthesia and surgical services, and Assistant Professor of Medicine at the State University of New York at Stony Brook. Taryn Duffy is the Vice President at Fleishman Hillard Government Relations, and brings a strong government background having previously served as Chief of Staff for the Deputy Minority Leader of the New York State Senate.

Patricia Driscoll, President of the Armed Forces Foundation, welcomed the newest additions to the organization's Board of Directors. "Our foundation is dedicated to providing members of the Armed Services with the absolute best possible support. The addition of these four board members will allow us to enhance our ability to service our nation's heroes."

About Armed Forces Foundation:

In 2001 the Armed Forces Foundation (AFF) was established as a 501(c)3 organization under the U.S. Department of Defense's military support program. AFF offers vital assistance to active-duty and retired personnel, National Guard, Reserve Components and military families as they cope with difficult circumstances. The Armed Forces Foundation is dedicated to providing comfort and solace to members of the armed forces community through financial support, career counseling, housing assistance and recreational therapy programs. The Armed Forces Foundation has been recognized by the President of the United States, the Department of Defense, the Department of Veterans Affairs, the Department of Education and the Department of Energy for its dedication to America's Service Members.