About the US Military Vets Motorcycle Club and the DC Rollergirls

The U.S. Military Vets Motorcycle Club is a non-profit organization established in Fort Lauderdale, Florida in 1987. As a national organization the club strives to provide a place where qualified military veterans are offered brotherhood and an opportunity to establish relationships with other military veterans who have served in the defense of the United States of America. The club also works to establish and support a strong sense of pride in having served in the active military service of the United States of America and to improve the image of military veterans and bikers to the general public.

The DC Rollergirls were formed in 2006 and are the National Capital Region's only women's flat-track roller derby league. Rollergirls possess a healthy appetite for physical competition and pride in their community. They aim to bring the best roller derby action to their spectators. The DC Rollergirls promote athleticism, diversity, and roller derby by becoming involved in the community and fostering self-worth, personal strength, and female empowerment.
